Some of the amenities that the “new-look” Classic Corner site will feature will be: on-line bidding, the ability to pay with your Paypal Debit Card and a site “shopping cart” where you can do all of your buying and then just click to pay. Of course, many of the old features that our customers have come to know and love will be retained, such as: our monthly price-lists, our auctions, alternate payment methods such as personal checks and money orders and our on-line seminars. 1954 Ted Williams (Card # 1 in the Set) TOPPS Baseball Card

1954 Ted Williams Topps Card (Ted Williams Card # 1 in the 1954 Topps baseball card set. Front looks super with nice centering and bold, bright color. There's a little bit of what appears to be a glue residue on front. Not bad, but I did want to mention it. Small, bottom portion crease (approx. 2" or so) that starts at bottom and protrudes upward. Very light, almost superficial in nature. On the back there are spots of glue residue and paper loss. My guess would be that this card once resided in a scrapbook. Let's summarize: Great looking front with just a light trace of glue residue. Nice centering. Exquisite colors. Small lower portion crease (approx. 2" or so). Back has glue residue and minor paper loss in a few spots. Grade: Vg condition)

1950-51 Minneapolis Lakers (World Champs) NBA Basketball Yearbook

1950-51 Minneapolis Lakers NBA Yearbook (Vintage early NBA yearbook from the World Champion Minneapolis Lakers. Long before they played in the glitzy, media-driven confines of LA, the Lakers called the, somewhat bucolic by comparison, Land of 10,000 Lakes their home. Includes recap of their 1949-50 Championship season. Great player profiles including: George Mikan, Jim Pollard, Vern Mikkelsen, Slater Martin, Bud Grant (Yes, the same Bud Grant who once coached the NFL's Minnesota Vikings), etc. Lots of player photos.

Condition: Has lots of wear (cover creasing, tear at bottom of spine, small amount of paper loss in upper right corner of cover, some moisture spotting inside in a few spots. Nice photos. All text is legible. Still a very impressive (and tough to find) early NBA yearbook.

Grade: Good/Vg condition)

1966 BATMAN Cards (Topps Issue) Partial Set (38 of 55)

1966 Batman Cards Partial Set of (38) out of (55) (A partial set of 1966 Batman cards issued from Topps. Lot contains (38) of the (55) cards in the set. Most of the cards grade a strong Ex, there are a few that have some creasing/soft corners, but overall a high-grade partial set. Starts at card # 3 and numbers run up to # 55 (but not all are consecutive). Grade: Excellent condition with a few lesser grade) $ 45. 00 + $ 2.00 S&H in USA

1962 Sandy Koufax (Post Cereal Issue) Baseball Card

1962 Sandy Koufax Post Cereal Card (# 109 from the popular '62 Post Cereal set. Card cut directly from the box of cereal. Cut nicely giving this card blazing sharp corners. Nice, problem-free image of Sandy. The only imperfection that I can see is that near the top there is a small pinhole. Appears that the former owner tried to cover hole up by pushing cardboard inward on back and supporting it by placing some glue near top (on back only). Other than this, would be a Near Mint card) $ 12. 00 + FREE S&H in the USA
